Honorable Henry M. Jackson
Chairman, Subcommittee on National Policy Machinery
Committee on Government Operations
United States Senate
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Senator Jackson:

During the absence of Mr. Dulles from the city, your letter to him of 13 June was referred to me. Certainly we are pleased to note your high evaluation of [redacted] work for your Subcommittee.

I shall bring your letter to Mr. Dulles' attention when he returns. A copy of your letter has been placed in [redacted] personnel file.

We were glad to be able to cooperate with the Subcommittee in making [redacted] available for this period. I thought you would be interested in knowing that she has been assigned to a new position which is fully in keeping with her talents and experience and she seems most satisfied with this new assignment.

Sincerely,

SIGNED

John S. Warner

June 13, 1960

The Honorable Allen W. Dulles
Director of Central Intelligence
The Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C.

Dear Mr. Dulles:

[redacted] who has been serving as Secretary to the Subcommittee on National Policy Machinery, is planning to resume her employment with the Agency later this week.

I wanted to let you know how much we appreciate [redacted]
[redacted] work for the Subcommittee over the past few months.
Her performance has been outstanding in every respect. She has discharged difficult duties with high efficiency and intelligence and has been of invaluable assistance to all of us in the effective administration of our work.

We are most grateful to [redacted] for her fine service, and to the Agency for allowing her to join us during the first year of the Subcommittee's existence.

With best wishes.

Sincerely yours,

Henry M. Jackson, U.S.S.
Chairman, Subcommittee on National Policy Machinery
